Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LOUISVILLE, Aug. 25.-Louisville took the game to-day by better all-round work, hitting Suthoff hard, especially in the first three innings. The visitors had scored but two runs until the ninth inning, when they got three runs over, largely because the Louisville players seemed to think that anything short of five runs was not worth their worrying about. Kerwin surprised everybody by the good game he pitched, considering his lack of practice. He was called in from the outfield because of the illness of Coons. Suthoff, since his big league days, has always been an easy mark on Louisville grounds. Ganzel, Clymer, Schaub and Schriever found him especially

Louisville scored one run in the first inning on Bonner's walk, Ganzel's single, Kuhns's failure to get Woodruff's assist and Clymer's infield hit. In the second another was added on Schaub's single and Schriever's triple. In the last half, Indianapolis tled the score. Grim walked and O'Brien singled. Kuhns's fly scored Grim and Heydon drove in O'Brien with a hit. In the third, Louisville scored three. Ganzel singled and, after two were out, Clymer singled, scoring Ganzel. Odwell singled and as he stole Heydon threw the ball to second to catch Clymer. Kuhns was not looking for the play and the throw went wild, Clymer scoring. Schaub brought in Odwell with a three-sacker. Louisville cinched the game in the seventh. Odwell was hit and Schaub made his second triple, which was followed by a single by Kerwin. The ninth, which was a peculiar one, netted the visitors three runs, much to their own surprise. Kuhns singled and after Heydon had gone out Kihm, who batted for Suthoff, sent one to Schaub that was good for an easy double play. Both Tilford and Bonner failed to cover the bag, evidently thinking Schaub was going to try only for the runner, so the ball was not fielded. Hogriever was disposed of on his fifth fly and Fox batted easily to Schaub, who had a chance on every base and fumbled with the bases full. Coulter refused to strike at a ball and managed to get four wide ones called while two strikes were being put over, forcing in a run. It looked easy and Grim tried the same thing. It was three and two when Kerwin sent a strike over and Grim pasted it for a single, scoring Kihm and Fox. Then everybody got busy

Baseball Notes.

Wallace, who has been pitching for the Superba ball club, of Richmond, and who was given a trial by the Richmond club, Benton Harbor, Mich., to have a try-out. The race for the pennant is growing very exciting, and the fans should turn out this week and root for Indianapolis to make clean records against Columbus and Toledo. Columbus begins the last series at Washington Park this afternoon, and Killen will probably pitch. Toledo comes the last two days of this week, and then the Hoosiers will have a chance at Louisville the first of next week. Let everybody root for Indianapolis.

Indianapolis men who attended the ball game at Louisville on Sunday are loud in their denunciation of the actions of the Louisville rooters. It is well known that visiting teams are ill treated in Louisville, and it is hard to win a game in that city. On Sunday the Indianapolis fans and players were treated to many insults. A man sitting in the grand stand deliberately spit in Captain Fox's face as the latter walked toward the bench. Another rooter threw a stone at Matthews's head, and the Indianapolis player dodged it just as the stone grazed his ear. Beer bottles and glasses were thrown at the players, and the umpire's life was made as miserabde as possible. The Indianapolis players had to close the windows in the bus when returning from the game, as the hoodlums tried to throw tobacco quids and other things at them. Thank the stars Indianapolis has a gentlemanly lot of fans, and such outrages are never committed in this city.

NATIONAL TENNIS TOURNEY.

Whitman and One of the Doherty Brothers to Play for Championship.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 25.-The national tennis championship of 1902 has practically reached the final stage. Malcolm D. Whitman, of Boston, the champion of 1898, 1899 and 1900, will be the American contestant in the finals to-morrow, and his opponent will be one of the English experts, R. F. and O. L. Doherty. It has been the rule with these two foreigners never to meet in important tournaments. They will have until 11 o'clock to-morrow to decide who shall meet Whitman. To-night A seems to be the general opinion that H. L. Doherty, the younger, will be found on the court when the time comes; but in any case the match to-morrow undoubtedly will be the finest and most keenly contested tennis ever played in this country. The chances appear to favor the American by a slight margin. His tremendous reach when playing at the net, and his ability to pull out of difficult situations, have made him a slight favorite. Still, the younger Doherty played such a remarkably strong game to-day in his match with Ware, allowing the Boston man only eleven games out of thirty and scoring 108 points to Ware's 75, that many believe Whitman will have to play the game of his life to win. Furthermore, Whitman was given a long, hard match to-day by R. P. Huntington, losing the first set, and just winning the second; and while he took the next two and the match, the contest exhausted him not a little. The elder of the Englishmen, R. F. Doherty, had no opponent to-day, as L. H. Wadner, of Chicago, defaulted his match Saturday. It is believed to-night that in

BARTHOLIN SEEN AUG. 16.

Did Not Leave Chicago Until After His

Mother's Body Was Found. CHICAGO, Aug. 25.-Chief of Police O'Neil to-day received information that leads him to believe William J. Bartholin, the suspected murderer, was in Chicago Aug. 16. He said he thought the fugitive was not dead, and that he was seen with a valise and probably left the city two of his murdered mother in her home.

Doubt as to the identity of the body buried as Minnie Mitchell must for some time complicate the mystery shrouding the Bartholin-Mitchell murder case. For the sue an order to exhume the body of the woman which was found on Aug. 7 in the weeds of a lonely field at Seventh and State streets. A plan was on foot to have dentists who worked on the young woman's teeth inspect those of the dead body to clear up the doubts of identity, but Robert Mitchell, brother of the supposed decedent, declined to sign affidavits necessary for the exhumation. He said his family was willing that the body be disinterred, but that although the only means of identification they had were articles of clothing found near the dead body, they were not willing to take the initiative.

Franklin College Directors Able to Meet His Terms.

The board of directors of Franklin College met at the Commercial Club at noon yesterday. President Stott, of the coliege, met with the board. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss the finances of the college and to appoint a new financial agent. The Rev. Norman Carr, who has held this position, has resigned and accepted a place with Shurtless College at Alton, Ill. The board appointed Dr. E. Wallace, who is treasurer of the college, to the position of financial agent. Dr. Wallace will fill both positions. Two or three years ago Mr. Rockefeliar promised the college $15,000 if the sum of $60,000 could be raised to go with it. The money has all been subscribed, but there is a good part of it to collect and there will be work for a financial agent. Besides, A. J. Thurston, president of the board of directors, offered to give $1,000 toward a Greek chair if enough other funds could be secured to make up a sum of $20,000. The board was successful in getting this amount subscribed, but there is some of it to collect.

SPOONER TO WIN.

Better Judgment of Wisconsin Republicans Is Showing Itself.

Atlanta Constitution. Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Taylor, who halls from Wisconsin, is quoted as declaring with much emphasis that the Republicans of that State intend to reelect Senator Spooner, even in the face of the opposition of Governor La Follette. It is to be hoped, both for the sake of the Republican party and the country, that trial. During that time the general worked Mr. Taylor's prediction will prove true. At the recent state convention, when Senator Spooner's friends sought an unequivocal indorsement and were able to get only such a resolution as Governor La Follette permitted, the outlook for Senator Spooner's re-election seemed pretty dark. He was to be required, according to the terms of the resolution adopted by the state convention, to swear allegiance to certain features of the state platform against which he and his friends had fought. Unless he did this, the dominant faction of the party, under the leadership of the strenuous Governor, would take his scalp. These issues were State rather than national. Governor La Follette seems to be on the right side, both in his advocacy of primaries and of the proper taxation of clerk, colored fireman and a colored tramp | corporations, but the merits of these queswere also slightly injured.
